It is with heavy hearts that we share the passing of our dear mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother and friend, Emily Weishaupt, who passed away quietly on August 15, 2015 at St. Peter's Hospital at the beautiful age of 95 years young.

Emily was born in Birmingham, England to Ada and Thomas Emery. She met and married Anthony (Tony)

Weishaupt during the war, and in 1946 she came to Canada as a war bride. She was active in the war brides association, attending yearly conventions as long as her health permitted.

Emily is survived by her sons Barry, George and Tom (Elaine) and their family Cory, Christopher, Jennifer Weishaupt, Brandy Marchinko and Jessica Sauce; her daughter-in-law Cecile Weishaupt and her children Jenn Bolen and Sherry Reid; her daughter Shirley (Elmer) Haas and their family Michelle (Greg) Banow, Wayne (Tara), Rodney (Michelle) and Robert (Kim) Haas; also a number of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Emily was predeceased by her husband Tony in December, 1975 and her son Peter in October, 2005.
