A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

Olga passed away peacefully with her family by her side on Wednesday, September 16, 2015 at the age of 92 years.

Baba will be remembered mostly for her humour and her great love of her family. Baba taught those around her about hard-work, determination and patience. She always had time to listen or help and continuously worried about her children and grandchildren. She was the anchor of our family and an inspiration to us all. Her amazing spirit will live on in all of us. Baba will be greatly missed.

Memory Eternal! Vichnaya Pamyiat!

Olga was predeceased by her husband of 50 years, John Kozakavich; her father Michael Sawchyn; her mother Effamia Sawchyn (Rygus), her brothers Peter, William, John, Nick, Alex and Russel Sawchyn; her sister Ann Kozakavich; her son Donnie Kozakavich and her daughter Lorraine Holobetz. OLGA KOZAKAVICH
1923 - 2015

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name' sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: For thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou annointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
